Welcome

Portmeirion is a holiday village built by Welsh architect Clough Williams-Ellis from 1925 to 1976. Built in an Italianate style, Portmeirion is an architectural icon and premier visitor attraction.

Visitors to Portmeirion can enjoy complimentary guided walking tours and train tour of the Gwyllt woodlands (Easter – Oct). Learn about how and why the village was built with our complimentary audio-visual show featuring Clough Williams-Ellis.

Explore 70 acres of sub-tropical woodland and gardens and 4 miles of coastal paths at Portmeirion. Discover temples, sculptures, a ruined castle and hidden lakes.
